TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All requests for the use and reproduction of any image owned by the James Monroe Museum & Memorial Library must be made in writing to the Assistant Director and Curator. Prepayment is required for all requests. Permission is granted for one time use only, and only for the specified purpose outlined on the reverse of this form. Material may not be used in any other editions, languages or formats. Each additional use requires another request and fee. It is strictly prohibited to resell, duplicate or publish any image from the James Monroe Museum & Memorial Library without the prior written consent of the Assistant Director and Curator. All images must carry the credit line listed on the reverse of this form, either next to the image or in a separate credits section. Failure to credit properly voids this contract. Fees may be discounted or waived for non-commercial use by not-for-profit organizations upon application to and at the discretion of the Assistant Director and Curator. Any CD's, transparencies or photographs provided to the requesting organization for reproduction purposes are to be returned to the James Monroe Museum & Memorial Library upon completion of the project. Failure to return these items voids this contract. The James Monroe Museum & Memorial Library requests a copy of the completed work upon publication/ release. The Assistant Director and Curator reserves the right to deny any request for any reason, without explanation.
