

At The James Monroe Museum we have the nation's largest collection of artifacts related to the life of James Monroe, but what is an artifact?

Artifact (noun): any object made by human work; especially an object remaining from a particular time period.

Here are a few artifacts from our collection!

Elizabeth Monroe's Wedding Dress

James and Elizabeth Monroe were married on February 16, 1786

White House China

It was made in France in 1817 for President James Monroe to use in the White House.

Bicorn Hat

James Monroe bought this hat in Paris while serving as U.S. Minister to France from 1794-1797.